Hilton

Experts in big events

Hosting between 300 to 4000 delegates

Planning and managing an event on a large scale is a huge feat, but ensuring every delegate feels like the experience is relevant and personal calls for something special.

A large event depends on the detail and who you entrust to deliver your vision, as well as the careful attention they give to every aspect of the experience.

The venue, the service, the team's experience and expertise, the planning and support: it's always a careful balance.

A balance that, we believe, our big events hotels have perfected. Each of our unique hotels – spread across Europe, the Middle East, and Africa – have the capacity to welcome events for 300+ delegates, and each with an expert Hilton team ready to deliver an event that goes one better.

to help plan
your big event

With us, it’s personal

Like every business, every event should be unique. That’s why our team will work with you as a collaborative partner.

We take the time to listen to your needs, understand your challenges, offer hands-on support, and provide practical solutions in the planning process and of course, throughout the event itself.

Explore new horizons

No one else comes close to offering the breadth of iconic venues available in our collection of Big Event Hotels.

Set in countries across Europe, the Middle East, and Africa, our hotels offer scale, gravitas and style, each giving you the unique opportunity to benefit from our 100 years of experience in delivering fresh, bold and exciting events.

Always going one better

We go above and beyond; not because we have to, but because we want to. It’s a passion that every member of our team shares.

It shows in everything we do, from unique event experiences to creative food and drinks set ups. We specialise in creating big defining moments – if you have a vision, we’ll make it larger than life.

Our exclusive invitation to you

Carbon offsetting for meetings & events

Your event, carbon offset, at no cost to you

Carbon offset meetings at Hilton help you achieve your sustainability goals via meeting & event practices and carbon offsets.

Corporate responsibility

LightStay, Hilton’s proprietary award winning corporate responsibility management platform, measures and manages our environmental and social impact across our global portfolio of hotels.

Meeting Impact Calculator

Using the information within the LightStay platform, the Meeting Impact Calculator takes a property’s consumption data to create a bespoke report that shows the estimated carbon, energy, water and waste that will be produced from your meeting or event.

Carbon credits

Based on your meeting’s impact, Hilton will offset the CO2 emissions associated with your event by procuring carbon offset credit from the ClimeCo Group.
